

THINGS TO CONSIDER FOR DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Destination:

- *Are there certain activities you're looking for in a destination, such as some place that offers Casinos, Hiking, Volcanoes, whale watching etc.
- *Does the destination require a passport? (or a visa if you have friends or family traveling from outside the U.S. to your wedding)
- *What is the weather like at the time of year you're wanting to get married?
- *What are the residency requirements for the country you're wanting to get married in?
- *Does the country you're interested in require your documents be translated into Spanish prior to arrival?
- *Will you be required to have blood tests upon arrival?
- *What are the requirements for both civil ceremonies and symbolic ceremonies? Which one is best for you?
- *What is the travel time for you and your guests to the destination you're interested in?
- *What is a realistic budget for your travel & accommodations, as well as your wedding & reception?

Resort:

- *What style of resort are you looking for? Tropical feel or Chic/Modern/Contemporary etc.
- *What size resort appeals to you most, large with lots of bars, restaurants & amenities or a smaller, boutique , more intimate setting?
- *Do you prefer an all-inclusive resort to include all meals & drinks, or a European resort, no meals or drinks included?
- *What's more important to you, beach or pool?
- *Are you looking for an Adult only resort, or does it need to be family friendly if children will be attending the wedding?
- *What kind of overall experience are you looking for in a resort?
- *What type of ceremony/reception are you interested in, informal; casual; semi-formal; formal?